Honorable Lewis A. Kaplan
United States District Judge
United States Courthouse
500 Pearl Street
New York, NY 10007

Re: United States v. Adel Abdel Bary
(S7) 98 Cr. 1023 (LAK)

Dear Judge Kaplan:

This letter is respectfully submitted to particularize the statements of Mr. Abdel Bary that we seek to suppress. The particular statements we seek to suppress are highlighted in yellow in the enclosed documents.

The first 4 pages of statements (Bates stamped [98 Cr. 1023 (LAK)-AB-007679-007682] were produced by the Government on or about July 19, 2013. These statements were made in Mr. Abdel Bary's home at the time of his arrest in the absence of counsel.

I have been advised that it is the Government's current intention not to seek to introduce in its case in chief, Mr. Abdel Bary's "no comment" statements made during interviews conducted at the Charing Cross Police Station on September 25, 1998 and the 2 interviews conducted on September 26, 1998.

Respectfully submitted,

DC [REDACTED] and Mr ABDELBARY.

Q. "I'm DC [REDACTED] from the Anti-Terrorist Branch and this is DC [REDACTED]."

Mr ABDELBARY then got up out of the bed and DC [REDACTED] said to him at 0635.

Q "Listen carefully you are under arrest for Section 14 of the Prevention of Terrorism Act namely that you are involved in the commission, preparation or instigation of Acts of Terrorism." DC [REDACTED] then cautioned him.

He made no reply.

In an effort to alleviate any distress to his children Mr ABDELBARY was taken to the next bedroom.

DC [REDACTED] said, "This place is going to be searched is there anything here that may harm anybody?"

A. "No."

Q. "You will be taken to Charing Cross Police Station and you will be given a chance to take some spare clothing and a prayer mat if you wish."

A. "Okay."

Q. "Do you have any vehicles?"

A. "Yes a Rover and a Ford."

DC [REDACTED] then told him that these too would be searched and again asked him if they contained anything that would harm someone.

He said, "No."

[REDACTED]

DC [REDACTED] indicated to several black bin liners propped against the wall and said, "What's in these?" He said, "Newspapers. I use them for research in my job."

DC [REDACTED] said, "What do you do then?"

He said, "I'm a solicitor I work for the Egyptian people that is why I have asylum in this country."

DC [REDACTED] said, "Do you have an office?"

He said, "Yes, across the road."

DC [REDACTED] said, "That will be searched as well. Is there anything there that would harm someone?"

He said, "No."

DC [REDACTED] said, "I think its clear to go into your bedroom again."

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Also present in the cell was his solicitor Mr AHMED. Mr ABDELBARY was awake and in consultation with his solicitor. I was then joined by DC [REDACTED]. I said to Mr ABDELBARY, "I am now formally releasing you from the provisions of the Prevention of Terrorism Act 1989. The time of your release will be 0133. However I am arresting you for possessing a prohibited weapon namely two CS gas canisters." I then formally cautioned Mr ABDELBARY at 0135 in respect of that matter to which he made no reply. The entire procedure was explained to Mr ABDELBARY by the interpreter. Following this Mr ABDELBARY through the interpreter was informed by the custody officer that he would be charged in a short while in respect of his possession of the two CS gas canisters.

At 0210 that day in the same cell with the same persons present the custody officer through the interpreter formally charged the prisoner and when further cautioned after charge Mr ABDELBARY elected to make the following reply:

"I would like to let you know I live in a very rough area and it is well known that it's rough. Sometimes my children play in the hallway and there is rubbish next to the door. They sometimes bring back injection used syringe and I did not know what it was for. With my English knowledge I would not understand what is its content."

Later that morning Mr ABDELBARY was released and bailed to appear before Marylebone Magistrates Court to answer the charge.

DI [REDACTED] having identified himself asked the male, "What is your name?". The male replied, "Adel

BARY". [REDACTED]

		I obtain information from the police officers which then I discuss with you, and at this stage I can say that I only have very limited disclosure and consequently my advice is extremely limited based on that disclosure. And consequently should there be introduction of any fresh evidence or information, I will seek to intervene, and try to explain and advise you on how best to deal with information. Do you understand all of that?
3.18	ABDELBARY	Yes.
	AGNEW	Today's date is the 24th of September 1998. The time on my watch is 1.42 pm.
	RISK	What's the time?
3.41	AGNEW	1.42 pm. This interview is being tape recorded and it may be given in evidence if your case is brought to trial. At the conclusion of the interview I will give you a notice explaining what will happen to the tapes. I must remind you that you have the right to free and independent legal advice. You can speak to a solicitor in private at any time of day or night and this legal advice is free. You can speak to a solicitor in person. If you do not want to speak to a solicitor in person, you can speak on the telephone. If you do want legal advice the interview can be delayed unless certain exceptions apply. As there is a solicitor present already, I will carry on with this interview. Do you understand everything that I have said to you?

5.51	ABDELBARY	Yes.
5.58	AGNEW	You do not have to say anything but it may harm your defence if you do not mention when questioned something which you later rely on in court. Anything you do, you do say may be given in evidence. Do you understand what that caution means?
6.42	ABDELBARY	Yes.
	AGNEW	Thank you. Okay. Mr ABDELBARY you have had an opportunity to consult with your legal representative prior to this interview, is that right?
	ABDELBARY	This is true. This is right, but I have not any details about the case.
7.23	AGNEW	I will ask you some questions in due course and perhaps you will be able to have a greater understanding of why you're here. Before this interview began, you have been provided with a cup of coffee and in addition, your solicitor has read over your notes of arrest.
8.25	ABDELBARY	Yes, I, he mentioned how I was arrested.
	AGNEW	Is the record that you've listened to correct?
8.43	ABDELBARY	Yes. But when the police enter, or when they entered on to my children, they cry and they scream and the police did not mention so.
	AHMED	That's right.
	AGNEW	That, that I would concede but as you can imagine that is an accurate recollection of the salient points of what's happened. Do you understand?

	AGNEW	That is not my recollection of events. Can I say that you had just been er... woken up.
10.10	ABDELBARY	He did not give me a letter, I am sure. He only told me verbally.
	AGNEW	Yes umm... but it, it has been shown.
10.27	ABDELBARY	However, this did not happen. I'm sure this did not happen, maybe no circumstances. Maybe his circumstances er... he forgot to show it to me.
	AGNEW	We'll move on. Do you agree that everything else is correct.
10.45	RISK	Okay.
	ABDELBARY	Yes, sure, everything is correct, yes.
	AGNEW	Okay. I would like to ask you some questions about your lifestyle and antecedent history.
	RISK	And?
	AGNEW	Antecedent history - your life history. Do you have any other names?
11.37	ABDELBARY	No. No. It is my name Adel Mohammed Abdel Magid ABDELBARY. That's all my names.
